Director Nexus is a dynamic experience.

These member exclusive small peer group discussions, held over the course of a year, provide a forum where directors can seek perspective and opinions on a wide range of boardroom issues and take away practical guidance to assist their boards and their own ongoing learning and development.

Benefits

- Share thoughts and experiences on emerging issues with your peer group
- Recognise how to enhance your boardroom processes and decision making
- Ongoing personal learning and development
- Maintain your currency in the director landscape
- Keep up-to-date on governance and director issues
- Improve your personal positioning as a director
- Confidential environment and a unique opportunity for honest and open discussion
- Limited number of participants to maximise opportunity for interaction

Topics

Topics for discussion are decided by participants and may include:

- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Remuneration
- Digital Strategy
- Risk management
- WHS: the role of the board
- Board assessment/evaluation
- Leading in times of crisis
- Directors and officers insurance
- Board renewal – how to get the right skills mix
- Cognitive diversity
- Cyber Security

Suitable for

Australian Institute of Company Directors members who hold a director position or have experience as a non-executive director on one or more formally established boards.

Package inclusions

- 10 x two hour meetings per year
- An experienced chair providing support and feedback for each group
- An Australian Institute of Company Directors representative to provide support, distribute agenda, notes and source guest speakers when required
- An end of year Group Nexus Dinner
- Light refreshments served at each meeting
