

DPD Audit

Reflecting on valuable experiences

Introduction

This form is designed to help you undertake a reflective review of a directorship or governance scenario you have engaged in. If you wish to claim DPD units for your reflective review, please keep a personal record using this form. We may ask to cite this form if you are selected as part of our audit process.

What is recognised?

Writing or recording, for individual purposes (or sharing with trusted peers), your reflections on any learnings/knowledge developed from your governance/directorship experiences as they align with the Company Directors Corporate Governance Framework™ (the Framework).

Outline the scenario faced or area of governance practice concerned
(Please indicate which quadrant or segment on the Framework the activity relates to)

Why was this an important scenario for you? (Describe in 2-3 sentences)

Outline any concerns you felt at the outset, or that arose during the process? (Describe in 2-3 sentences)

How was the scenario/experience approached and why?

Please contact us if you have any questions regarding DPD.

t: 1300 739 119

e: contact@aicd.com.au

How did this experience impact your thinking and/or approach to directorship/governance issues?

File for your records:

Please retain this form for your personal records. You can add your DPD units to your record by using the member area of our website
w: aicd.com.au/My-Site

How many units can I accrue for my reflective review?

You may accrue 10 DPD units per reflective review completed.

What learning or lessons might you be able to share with someone else (even one confidential connection) as a result of this experience? What guidance could you offer to someone potentially dealing with a similar challenge in the future?

Confidentiality

Please do not disclose any personal or confidential information on this form.