Privacy statement

We use the information in this application to assess your eligibility for the membership related application you are making and to otherwise manage your membership. When we collect information of a sensitive nature (such as criminal history, health information, referee or financial information) from you, we only use or disclose it to assess and process your application. We use date of birth to identify you in our records. Otherwise we use information in membership related applications (including date of birth) and records of your interactions with Company Directors to provide information and services aligned with your specific needs and to keep track of your Director Professional Development points. Corporations Law requires us to keep a register of members containing name and address and to disclose this information on request. Some of our contracted service providers are located in other countries including US, UK and Singapore. We take reasonable steps to ensure these service providers do not breach the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs). If you authorise Company Directors to contact your personal/executive assistant, you must give them the details of this notice. If your assistant contacts us on your behalf we will ask them to identify themselves using the contact information you gave us. Unless you opt-out we publish a list of new members and other membership milestones (for example, graduation) in our Company Director Magazine. Unless you opt-out we will send you marketing communications with offers of benefit to you from Company Directors and selected partners (via letters, telephone and electronic communications such as email and SMS) until 12 months after you cease to be a member or your last interactions with us. Log into the Company Directors website to opt-out or contact Company Directors by phone or email. For more about our information handling practices including how you can ask for access to and correction of the personal information we hold about you and how to make a complaint see our privacy policy at companydirectors.com.au/global/privacy

Refund policy

Membership fees will not be refunded by us except where:

- An application for membership is declined.
- Exceptional circumstances prevent a member from continuing their membership.

Written applications will be assessed on a case by case basis.
